Dear Mr. Donovan -

I regret to tell you that Gary committed suicide. We had been separated for nearly a year at the time of his death. I do not know the Fitzsimmons, nor do I know of the conversation to which you refer.

However, I do know John Phillips and would be grateful if you would notify him for me. No apologies are necessary for your letter - it was most tactful and I did not take offense.

Sincerely yours,
Patricia W. Underhill
